DEDICATION

This work is dedicated to my grandson, John Fulton Davis, III, "whom not having seen," I love. He was born June 20, 1961, in Germany. His father, Captain John Fulton Davis, and his mother, Joy Eddings Davis, are stationed in Wertheim, Germany, with the 655 Medical Company.

MEMORIAL

This work is dedicated to my grandfather, John Fulton Davis, III, "down and loving man," I love. He was born June 22, 1902, in Germany, his father, Captain John Fulton Davis, and his mother, Mrs. Estelle Davis, was married in Maryland, Germany, with the 688 Central Postal Directory.

FOREWORD

This work follows that of last year wherein I abstracted all items in the A section of wills of Amherst County, Virginia, and furnished an index such as the one for this B section. I have also abstracted deed books A and B and have indexed the grantors and grantees.

This may well be termed "Spoonfed Genealogy" for I have sought to set forth in simple terms the important features of all items. I now have all items abstracted on large cards for all books of wills indexed in the first Master Index from 1761 to 1919. This includes 24 numbered books and A and B of old Circuit Wills.

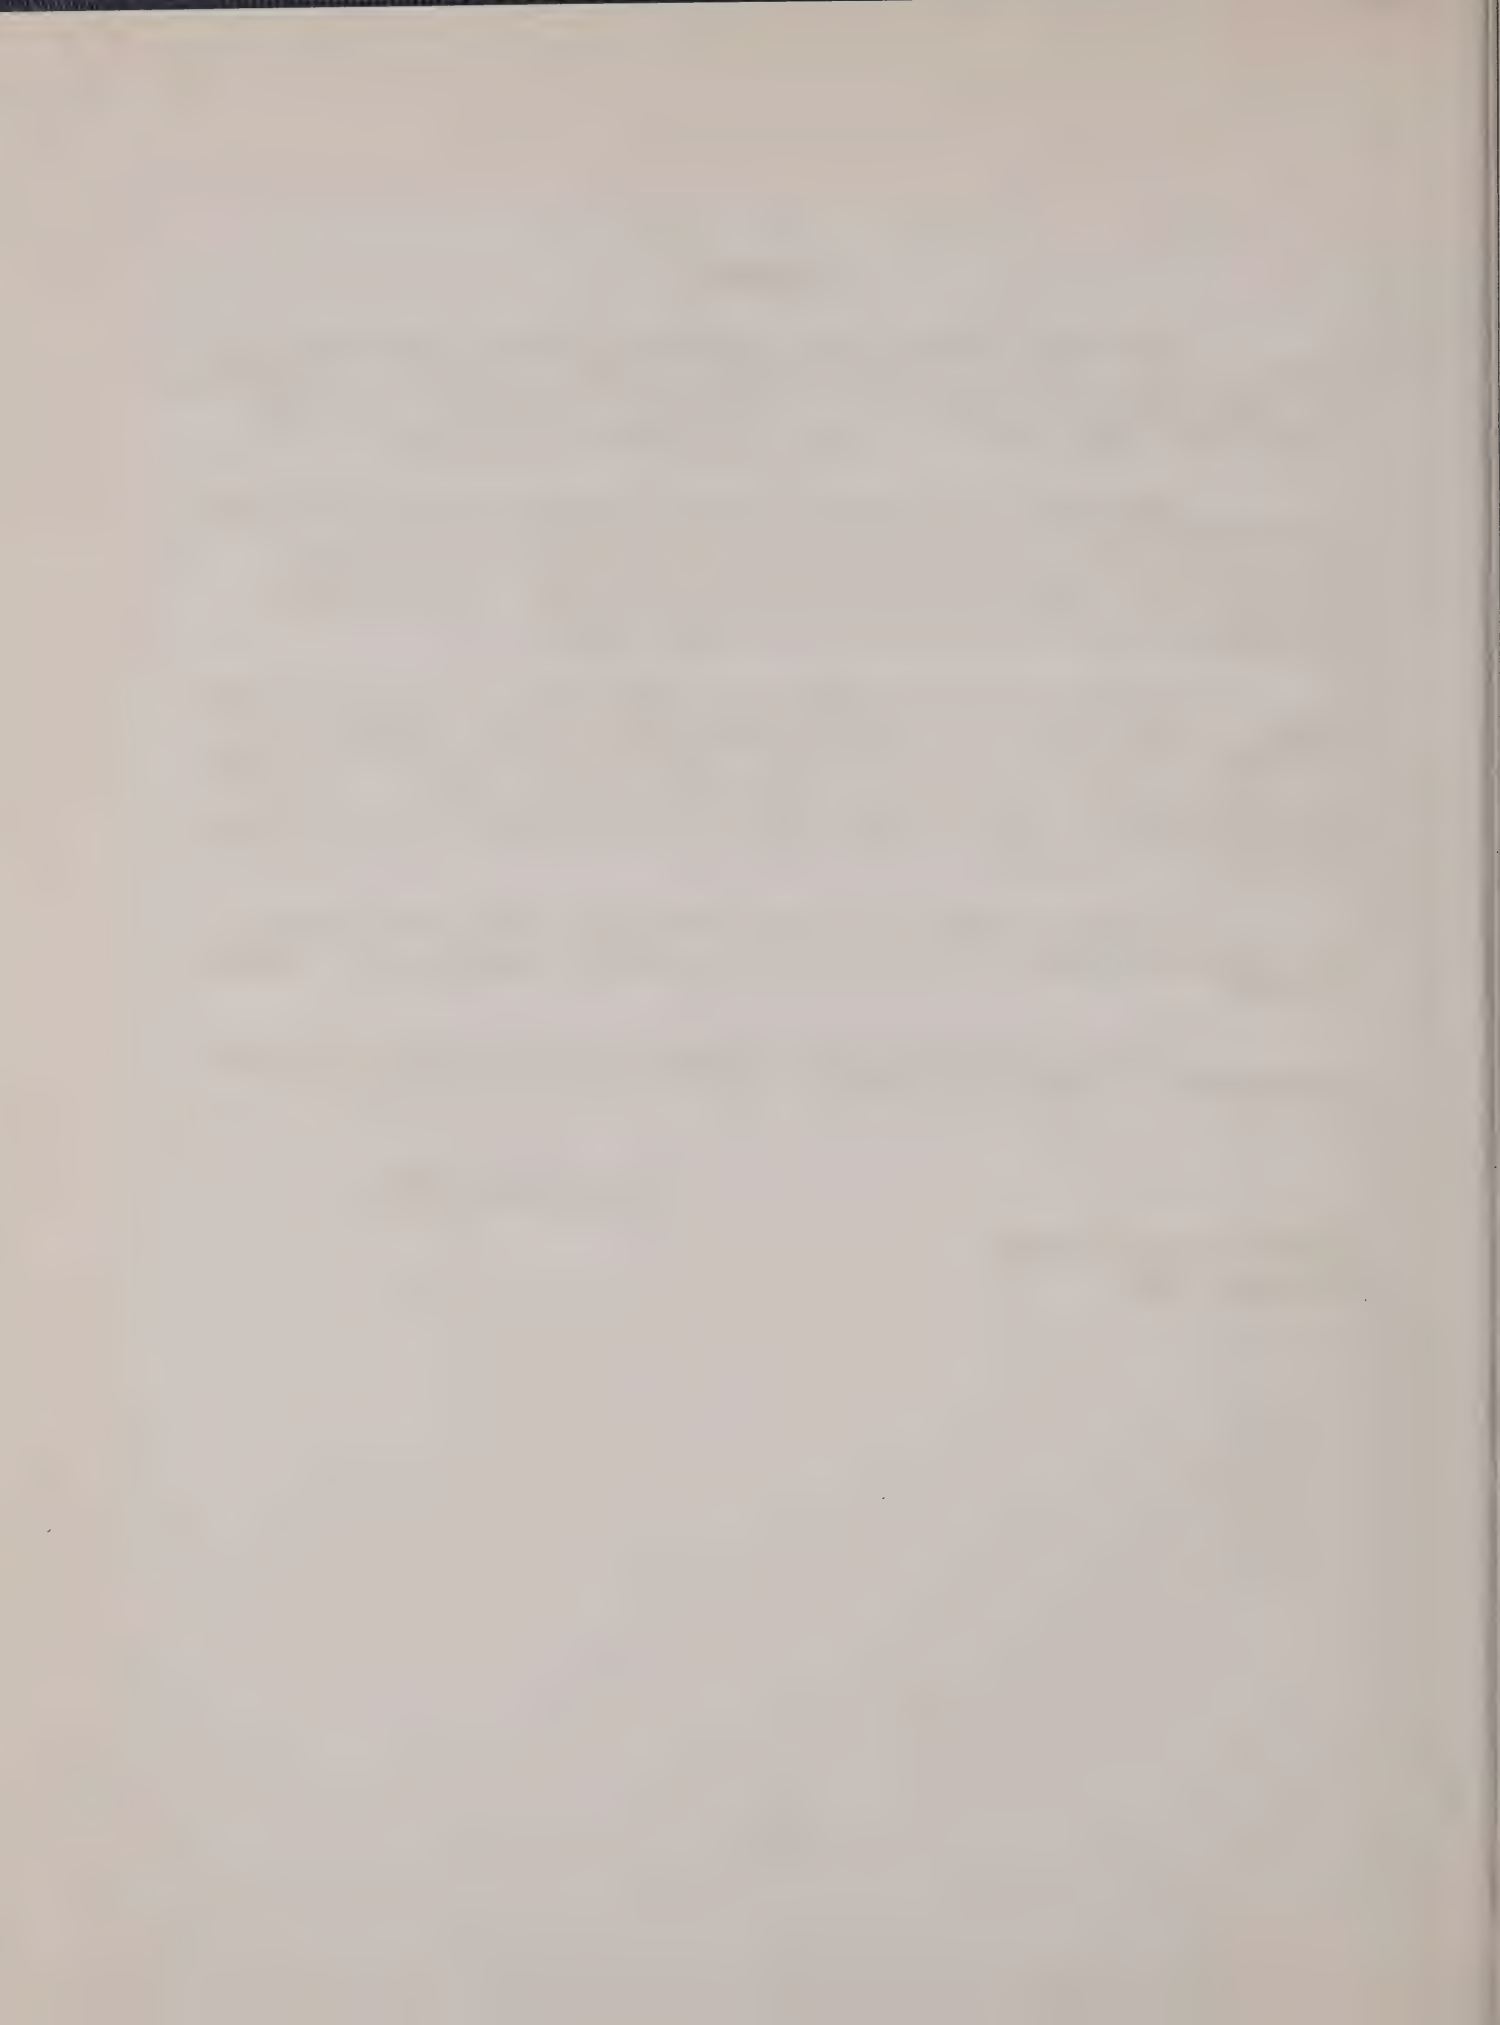

It may be that researchers may think that the index containing names of administrators, bondsmen, witnesses and other persons treated is administering an overdose of names. However, I feel that this helps to locate persons who may show up in deeds and not in wills. I shall welcome comment on this, though, since I hope to issue more alphabetical sections in due time.

I wish to thank Miss Helen Edgemon and Miss Mildred Edgemon for their invaluable assistance in typing and mimeographing the stencils for me.

If this compilation helps someone to engage in profitable and pleasurable genealogical pursuit, I shall have been well rewarded.

B ITEMS IN AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA

WILL BOOKS, 1761-1919

These items are numbered and arranged in alphabetical order. Two indices are furnished to show all testators, legatees, administrators, bondsmen, witnesses, and other persons. The books covered by the first Master Index are 1 through 24 and A and B of old circuit wills. Abbreviations will be found and a word of explanation is given for them:

AB - administrator's bond.

EC to S - estate committed to Sheriff.

GB - guardian bond.

Bdm. - bondsmen.

Inv. - inventory.

O of P - Overseer of the Poor.

Const. - constable bond.

RB - Refunding bond whereby legatees make bond to indemnify an administrator.

TI - Tobacco Inspector.

3:392 means that the item is found in will book 3 and page 392.

July 4, 1776, Aug. 8, 1777 - the usage of two such dates simply denotes when a will was written and probated.

Wits. - denotes witnesses.

Many times an item will end with names of committeemen who performed various tasks such as taking an inventory. All of this is set forth so that the novice will understand just what is abstracted. Sometimes the names or initials are hard to decipher and a question mark is used. There may be two or three spellings of the same family name in the same item. I have tried to point out all such discrepancies for the researcher. I do not claim infallibility, but have tried to be as careful and painstaking as possible.

1:425 Division to widow and son, William - L 30-8-2, by same committed as inventory, Dec. 29, 1777. (Note: It would appear that Eliz. later married Wm. Horrall, but I find no record here. On Aug. 3, 1782, Sarah Bowler and Chas. Eads got license to marry and were bachelor and spinster. Wm. and Eliz. Horrall, "parents-in-law" of Sarah gave consent; Sarah also consented. There is an old Boulware or Bowler Wharf on the Rappahannock. I am interested in the family because it constitutes one of my wife's lines. Wm. Taylor came into Fayette County, Ky., and was said to have been a resident of Essex and Revolutionary soldier. His name appears on the list of soldiers at Lexington, Ky., courthouse. His wife is reputed to have been Eliz Guilham or Gilliam and her father, William, lived in Fayette and later moved to Illinois with his daughter. William Taylor had died in Ky. Tradition has it that Eliz.'s mother was Eliz. Boulware or Bowler. Three men show up in Fayette and one of them, Stark Taylor, is known to have been of this same Taylor line. The other two men were named Stark Boulware and Stark Guilham or Gilliam. It is enough to drive one "Stark" mad, but I have never been able to untangle the Boulware, Guilham, and Taylor lineage for pre-Revolutionary days. I feel sure that there is a connection with the Stark family because of the use of the name by all three families.)

INDEX OF TESTATORS, LEGATEES, AND FAMILY NAMES IN B'S
OF AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA WILLS

1761-1919

This is very simple to use. If a name has a number to the left of it that signifies that this person is a testator or subject of an item which is so numbered. Thus, 3. Bailey, James A., means that he is the third item in the B section which is alphabetically arranged. If a number appears to the right of a name -- B 7 -- as in the case of Kate A. Bailey, this simply means that she is to be found in Number 7 of B items. I have tried to cross-index females when possible. If a number appears more than once, this indicates more than one mention of a name. A separate index follows this one for all bondsmen, witnesses, etc., so that one can get a clear picture of various persons living in Amherst during these years as they were associated with B group.

INDEX OF ALL BONDSMEN, WITNESSES, ADMINISTRATORS
AND OTHER PERSONS ABSTRACTED IN B WILLS OF AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA
1761-1919

This index is in addition to the one for all testators, legatees, and family names. I have wondered about the feasibility of including it, but a splendid librarian has seen the advance copy and urged that this be printed. I shall welcome comments on the subject for I hope to issue future sections on the many other alphabetical groups. I realize that from a genealogical viewpoint that this index helps to locate persons who may have been here only a short time. Matthew Nightingale, for example, appears in the Douglas Register in a marriage item and then is shown here in items number 91 and 130, which bear dates 1777 and 1782. I happen to know that he went on to my native Kentucky, but this helps to chart his movements. This index is simple for each number refers to the B items wherein the name appears. David Appling, for instance, appears in four items: 100, 101, 105 and 112. Many B's are indexed, but they appear in items other than those relating to their own families.
